

Dear Humane Society Friend,

December 2019

When deciding to adopt a new dog or cat many individuals ideally want a puppy or a kitten. Not only are they extremely cute, but the opportunity to watch an animal grow and create a long lasting bond with them can be very rewarding. But there are other adorable, well-deserving dogs and cats at the shelter- senior dogs and cats!

Senior dogs and cats are just as in need of a loving and caring home. Often senior dogs and cats were surrendered through no fault of their own and unable to comprehend what has happened to them. There is nothing more heartbreaking than the displaced and betrayed senior animal that will spend their final days and years in unfamiliar circumstances.

Unfortunately older animals do have a harder time getting adopted, by choosing a senior dog or cat; you can consider yourself a silent hero, knowing that you saved a life.

Senior dogs and cats are often less demanding compared to puppies and kittens and since older dogs and cats have less energy and have been previously trained this is a great option for individuals or families who may be too busy to dedicate time to a puppy or kitten.

When adopting an older dog or cat, you are often left with no surprises. Since older dogs and cats are fully developed you will know their physical attributes along with their character, temperament and personality which makes it easier to choose the right dog and cat for your family and your lifestyle.

Consider changing the life of a deserving senior dog or cat through adoption or fostering.

Sincerely, President: Brenda Volmer, Vice President: John Long, Secretary: Ann Zobrosky, Treasurer: Jayne Stuckey, Teresa Willmann, Kathleen Carlson, Sarah Ertel, Judy Perez, Mary Branson, Ann Simmons, Cindy Scott, Dan Kaufman
